

Gates Foundation Special Lecture on Global Health:

International Cooperation to Save Lives

11.19 THU
16:30-17:40

MIRAI CREA 1F Multipurpose Space
(Higashi-Hiroshima Campus)

※This event will be livestreamed for students at the Kasumi and Higashi-Senda Campuses.

GUEST SPEAKER

Moe Hirohara

Professionals for Impact
Consultant,
Gates Foundation Japan Office

1 What Is Global Health?
Lessons from the Work of the Gates Foundation

2 Overview of Key Actors
in Global Health:
Major Organizations and
Their Roles

3 Getting Involved in Global Health: Opportunities for Students

Explore global health challenges and international cooperation through the work of the Gates Foundation. Learn about efforts to improve health worldwide and discover opportunities for students to get involved and make a difference.

Target Audience

Undergraduate and Graduate Students

Language

English

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

- Are interested in international cooperation and social impact
- Would like to work for an international organization or NGO in the future
- Want to learn how they can contribute to solving global challenges

※This lecture will be counted as one seminar attendance for the courses "Science Seminar for Smart Society A" and "Science Seminar for Smart Society B" offered by the Graduate School of Innovation and Practice for Smart Society.

【Organizer & Contact】

Graduate School of Innovation and Practice for Smart Society
smart-society@office.hiroshima-u.ac.jp

Registration Here
【Registration Deadline】

11.12 (THU) ▶

