

○ Handling of Dishonest Acts during Semester Final Examinations, etc.

(April 1, 2004 Approved by the President)

1. Class completion in a relevant semester for an individual who has committed a dishonest act during semester final examinations, etc. shall be handled in the following manner.
  - (1) When an individual has committed a dishonest act during an examination in a liberal arts education course, evaluations for all the liberal arts education courses shall be marked as “poor.” However, liberal arts seminars shall be excluded.
  - (2) When an individual has committed a dishonest act during an examination in a specialized education course, evaluations for all the special education courses shall be marked as “poor.”
2. Disciplinary action shall be taken against an individual who has committed a dishonest act during a semester final examination, etc. in accordance with Hiroshima University Student Disciplinary Regulations (March 7, 2016 Regulation No. 20).
3. Matters relevant to semester final examinations, etc. in graduate schools and advanced courses shall be handled according to 1 and 2.

Note: (March 14, 2006 Partial Revision)

1. This revision shall be applied from April 1, 2006.
2. The provisions then in place regarding the handling of dishonest acts during a semester final examinations, etc. in a liberal arts education course or a specialized education course shall remain applicable, notwithstanding prescriptions regarding the Handling of Dishonest Acts during Semester Final Examinations, etc. revised in accordance with this revision.

Note: (March 10, 2016 Partial Revision)

This revision shall be applied from April 1, 2016.

Note: (March 9, 2018 Partial Revision)

This revision shall be applied from April 1, 2018.