

If you're stuck on an assignment or thesis...

come to the Writing Center !

◆ What is the Writing Center?

The Writing Center (or WRC) provides various services for Hiroshima University students and faculty, including Writing Tutorials, Consultations on Research Papers, seminars, workshops, and classes, all for free!

The Center's faculty and tutors are here to support writers in creating easy to understand and well-structured academic manuscripts.

Reserve online !

◆ Writing Tutorial (Japanese · English)

In a writing tutorial, a graduate student tutor will work with you to help you examine your paper, and make it more understandable and structured. Tutors will work with you through a conversation to help you become a better academic writer. This service is recommended for everyone who wants to improve their writing!

※The writing center tutors and faculty cannot provide proofreading, copy-editing, or native-checks.

- Types of Tutorials
 - Face-to-face
 - Online (Zoom)
 - Drop-off (tutor will make comments on the document and return it)
- Languages : Japanese and English
- Location : Central Library 1st Floor "Writing Center"
beside the circulation counter.
- Times : Weekdays when classes are in session
2nd ~ 3rd Period (except afternoon break)

We recommend this service for class assignments, reports, and graduation theses!

◆ Consultations on Research Papers In English

Consultations on Research Papers are conducted by specially appointed professors and the Writing Advisor Fellow. They will help you prepare your English research papers for publication, or English presentations for conferences by advising you on the conception and overall structure of the manuscript.

※The writing center tutors and faculty cannot provide proofreading, copy-editing, or native-checks.

- Type of Consultation : Online (Teams, Zoom)
- Languages : Japanese and English

We recommend this service for those preparing for an English publication or conference presentation.

