Scholarship System for Privately-Funded International Students

Below are the main types of scholarships for privately-funded international students. However, please prepare your study funds before coming to Japan because the number of grantees is limited.

1. Prior to Admission Scholarship Program (HU-PASP)

Hiroshima University offers some special scholarship programs for international students.

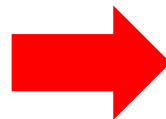

Eligibility and Selection Process

Grantees will be selected by university from the students enrolled by pre-arrival admission system*.

Scholarship information from private organizations, etc.

- Please check the MOMIJI message board for information on applying for each scholarship application.
