3. Why Japanese Companies Employ International Students?

- ① To recruit excellent human resources regardless of nationality
- ② To carry out assignments related to clients overseas
- ③ To hire foreign nationals who can work as executive candidates for overseas subsidiaries
- ④ To perform duties arisen from newly launched businesses overseas.

Japanese companies have high expectations of international students who will work internationally with their specialized skills.

4. Schedule of Job Hunting

In Japan, we recommend you to start job hunting while you are still at university. Once you have decided the company that you want to work for, you should firstly check the recruitment activities schedule on the company's website. The Global Career Design Center holds a variety of guidance sessions and seminars. Let's proactively participate in those events. You can see the schedule for the guidance sessions and seminars on the Global Career Design Center website.

6. Companies

Japanese language proficiency is really important!

You are required to have the abilities equivalent to Japanese students.

- (1) Japanese language
- (2) Understanding of the Japanese culture
- (3) Professional knowledge (especially science major)

In order to gain employment, it is essential as a prerequisite to have sufficient ability to speak, read, and write in Japanese.

We recommend you to attend Japanese classes as often as you can!

The background of the slide is a vibrant blue gradient, transitioning from a darker blue at the top and bottom to a lighter, almost white blue in the center. Overlaid on this gradient are numerous overlapping circles of varying sizes and opacities, creating a bokeh effect. Some circles are solid blue, while others are semi-transparent white or light blue, giving the overall appearance of a shimmering, bubbly texture.
